MPA Announces January 12 Opening Exhibition Reception for "Invention/Intention: Works by Delina Dastur and Maryanne Pollock" MPA kicks off the New Year with a joint exhibition by renowned abstractionists

McLean, VA: McLean Project for the Arts (MPA) will open Invention/Intention: Works by Delina Dastur and Maryanne Pollock with an Opening Exhibition Reception on Saturday, January 12, 2019 from 5-7pm at MPA@Khanbridge (1446 Chain Bridge Road, McLean).

Invention/Intention features paintings by Delina Dastur and Maryanne Pollock. These two abstract painters both make works created through a delicate and magical blend of intentional, planned process and improvisational experimentation.

"It will be fascinating to see the work of these two artists in a visual conversation, as each brings years of work and study and teaching in the field to bear and to blend with their experimental and spirited approach to painting," said MPA Exhibitions Director Nancy Sausser.

Maryanne Pollock's evolution works combine painting and printmaking techniques to create abstractions with calligraphic marking and patterning influenced by time spent living and working in Egypt.

Delina Dastur, also an abstractionist, uses architecturally inspired compositional structure to
