Don't Forget to Follow Us on Social Media

Therapist Rose Robinson reports lots of positive feedback from the first session, including "It was great", "I learned something new", and "I look forward to next week." Our MPA ArtReach program director, Sharon Fishel, is emailing these weekly (above) this past Tuesday:

We hope you'll join us for our July 15 online opening reception from 7-8pm.

MPA Summer Art Camps Update

MPA is excited to announce that we will be offering both in-person and online summer art camps. The safety of our campers, staff, and community is at the forefront of our minds as we re-design our in-studio camps in this new environment. Join us online or in our studio for a variety of different art activities that will ignite your child's creativity.

MPA's Counselor in Training Program (CIT):

MPA's Counselor in Training Program (CIT) is a summer program for teens ages 13-18. No previous experience necessary. August 24-28, Tuesday-Saturday, 1:30-4pm.

Vosler Young Artists Studio:

Vosler Young Artists Studio is a different art activity that will focus on works that address the concept of shift, change, or exchange--in environment, perspectives... In-Studio Sessions:

Call for Submissions:

MPA seeks works for our summer online juried exhibition, SHIFT, June 22-August 7, 1-hour sessions for ages 6-8, 75-minute sessions for ages 6-12.

The two juror/curators will create two separate exhibits from the submissions, one for ages 6-8, one for ages 6-12. Works for these exhibits can be two-dimensional or three-dimensional, and can include any medium or technique.

Artists are invited to submit works that address the concept of shift, change, or exchange--in environment, perspectives... These works can address these topics in any way that feels meaningful to the artist. The submission deadline is June 15, 2020.

TO SUBMIT: Artists can submit works by email to info@mpaart.org or by mail to McLean Project for the Arts, 1234 Ingleside Avenue, McLean, VA 22101. Each submission should include a completed submission form (below) and a digital image of each work. You can submit up to five works for consideration.
