DMV Art Organizations and Museums at the Forefront of the Local Creative Economy

DMV art organizations and museums at the forefront of the local creative economy, the Raw Hope coalition. MPA is proud to announce our participation as part of the #RawHope coalition. Comprised of DC and DMV art organizations and museums at the forefront of the local creative economy, the Raw Hope coalition.

For more information or to register for the discussion, "The Social Impact of Mural Art", on February 17 at 6pm. The panel will discuss mural art in public spaces as an expression of social and political resistance, providing a collaborative platform for artists to share their experiences and perspectives.

Your support makes MPA's ArtReach program possible. To make a gift, please visit our website and click the "Donate" button. Your contribution will help us continue to support artists and communities through ArtReach, a program that provides free public art classes for children and older adults. Your donation will also support the installation of outdoor sculptures at the McLean Civic Center and in our Atrium Gallery last year--is now sharing our ArtReach program with her students at a school in Chandrasekar.
