McLean Project for the Arts Announces Fall Art Classes in-studio and online options available

Registration is currently underway for fall art classes at McLean Project for the Arts (MPA). Autumn offerings include the return of many popular classes, as well as the debut of exciting new options. MPA will be holding fall classes both online and in-studio. Classes are available for adults and youth, and for new and experienced art students alike. Join MPA for a variety of imaginative and inspiring classes to ignite your creativity and expand your horizons. Visit mpaart.org for a complete list of fall class offerings.
