MEDIA ADVISORY

McLean Project for the Arts Youth Art Exhibition Now on Display at Dulles International Airport

McLean Project for the Arts (MPA) is pleased to announce that the MPA Youth Art Exhibition is currently on display at Dulles International Airport, VA. Delegate Kathleen Murphy and her husband Bill Swallow helped facilitate the opportunity for this exhibition, which showcases art featured in MPA's recent MPAArtist Children's ArtWalk, presented with the assistance of the New Dominion Women's Club. The exhibit was put together by the staff of the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority.

- WHAT: MPA Youth Art Exhibition
- WHO: Artwork by local public and private school students
- WHEN: Currently on display at the Dulles International Airport
- WHERE: The display is located by the West Side TSA Precheck Security Checkpoint on the ticketing/departure level. (From Baggage Claim go up the escalators facing the East Security TSA Checkpoint and turn right. Then as you are now facing west, the walls are on the right side, directly facing the TSA Precheck entrance.)
