McLean Project for the Arts' Spring Benefit Set for May 18 MPA's signature spring fête to take place at Wildersmoor House in Great Falls

McLean, VA: McLean Project for the Arts' signature spring fête, Spring Benefit, will take place on Thursday, May 18, 2023 at Wildersmoor House in Great Falls, Va. Co-chaired by Marsha Muawwad and Natalie von Seelen, Spring Benefit raises critical funds supporting MPA's mission of connecting art and community.

"MPA's Spring Benefit kicks off the summer soirée season, celebrating a vital commitment to the arts and our community," said MPA co-chair Natalie von Seelen. "This year, we are particularly excited to offer guests the opportunity to support the arts in such a timelessly beautiful location."

Wildersmoor House in Great Falls

Nestled among the pastoral rolling hills, Wildersmoor House in Great Falls offers an enchanting experience, rivaling the great homes of the English countryside. The estate features over 17 acres of lush rolling hills, as well as a picturesque lake evoking a timeless sense of wonder and awe.

Several stunning pieces by the renowned McLean sculptor Emilie Benes Brzezinski will be featured onsite during the event. Additionally, Spring Benefit 2023 will feature the music of The Bitter Dose Combo, DC's premier gypsy jazz and swing band, and Abbie Palmer, a multi-genre harpist. The event will also include fare from Windows Catering Company.

Sponsorship opportunities are currently available online. Ticket sales open April 17, 2023. Visit mpaart.org for more information.
