

MPA Winter Exhibitions Open this Thursday, December 7

Opening Exhibition Reception 7-9pm

Mark your calendars and join us this Thursday, December 7 from 7-9pm as we open our winter exhibitions, sponsored in part by the Young Family.

Emerson Gallery: Moving Beyond Beauty: Reverence and Reclamation Atrium Gallery: To March is to Love: Weavings by Janel Leppin

December 7, 2023 - February 17, 2024 Opening Reception: December 7, 2023 7-9pm Artist Talk: January 20, 2024, 1-3pm Tea & Talk: February 8, 2024, 11am

Moving Beyond Beauty

This exhibit brings together five artists—Adjoa Jackson Burrowes, Jacqui Crocetta, Maggie Gourlay, June Linowitz, and Elzbieta Sikorska-who make work that is at once aesthetically pleasing and philosophically compelling. Visual attractiveness and the expression of deep and sometimes unsettling ideas live together, as each artist feels an urgency to address love, concern and reverence for the natural world. Beauty, created through skillful and inventive use of materials, becomes the doorway through which the viewer enters into a sincere dialogue about our fundamental need to experience and learn from nature and our ever more pressing responsibility to honor and care for it.

To March is to Love

Leppin's whimsical and moving fiber art represents the dichotomy of a wondrous and fragile world, weaving textiles and used clothing to create unexpected textures and patterns. Her work mirrors the struggle between action and complacency, inviting us to engage with and contemplate our humanity.

McLean Project for the Arts

OUR VISION: Nurturing the Expression of Human Imagination In 2023--MPA's 61st year--we showcased brilliant expressions of this vision! We proudly exhibited work by scores of artists, served hundreds of MPA ArtReach participants through our award-winning and beloved outreach program, and welcomed thousands at our 17th MPAartfest. And, MPA Inspires, our recent inaugural Collectors' Weekend exceeded all expectations!

Looking to 2024, we are thrilled that a new space for an Arts & Education Center in Downtown McLean is now in the realm of the possible ... if not the immediate future! This expansion creates a canvas of possibilities for MPA, for McLean, for artists across the region ... and beyond. More details on this exciting project will follow early in the New Year!

Meanwhile, we remain keenly focused on our operations and ongoing programs. This 2023 Annual Giving campaign ensures the seamless functioning of MPA's essential infrastructure. Your continued partnership is not just a donation; it's a direct investment in this treasured community arts organization.

Our Annual Giving goal is to raise $90,000 by December 31st. With your help, we can meet this target, ensuring that the arts will continue to thrive in our community. Please consider making a tax-deductible contribution today, online or through the mail. Your gift, big or small, makes a world of difference.

Thank you for being an essential part of our journey!

NOW OPEN: Winter Art Class Registration

This winter, come in from the cold and join MPA for an exciting lineup of Winter art classes for all ages, interests, and abilities. MPA's winter lineup includes some of our long-time favorites, as well as exciting new options, including:

- NEW! Folding Forms & Hand Building for the Garden, with Jimmy Potters --Thursdays from 11am-12:30pm, beginning January 25
- NEW! Pottery Around the World for ages 6-12, Thursdays from 4-5:30pm, beginning January 25

Teens are also encouraged to register and join us for some of our previously adult-only classes, such as Drawing Basics (Colors, Lines and Motion) with Ahmed Zaidan (Saturdays, 2-4pm beginning January 27), or our Creating Artwork with Layered Paper Workshops (Village on a Hill / Picket Fence with Flowers / Trees in Springtime / The Beach)

We are also excited to again offer our ever-popular Open Studio on Tuesdays from 6-8:30pm (beginning January 23) and Saturdays from 10:30am-1:30pm, beginning January 27.

(Looking to get a head start on your holiday shopping? Give the gift of creativity! MPA art classes make a perfect holiday gift--for a child, a friend, or even yourself!)

For detailed descriptions on all of our fall classes, visit our website.

Contact Briana Clorey at bclorey@mpaart.org with questions--and register early to secure your spot!

MPA ArtReach Update

ArtReach Sharon Fishel has been having a very successful season of her virtual Service Source class for adults with disabilities, hosting an amazing record number of 80 participants last week!

She also continues to provide weekly in-person art classes to people at the Wellness Center for Older Adults in Fairfax, and weekly virtual classes for seniors in Fairfax County through the Lewinsville Senior Center.

In addition, Sharon has hosted nine in-gallery tours/workshops with community partners during our (not) Strictly Painting exhibition, many of whom have participants with special needs -- a wonderful chance to fulfill our mission of making the visual arts accessible to all in our community.

We're looking forward to hosting community visits and hopefully some FCPS Title I elementary school groups during the run of our Winter exhibitions. Please reach out to Bclorey@mpaart.org if you are part of a group or connected with a school that would like to schedule a visit.

As always, we're grateful for the support of our generous community in making this ArtReach possible and welcome your support. If you'd like to make a contribution to support our MPA ArtReach program, please make your gift to our Annual Giving campaign at https://mpaart.org/annual-giving-2023/.

November Thanks!

MPA Inspires -- Success!

Sincere thanks to everyone who helped make our inaugural MPA Inspires Weekend such a resounding success! The weekend-long festivities included a Collectors' Drawing featuring art generously donated by 63 artists, a beautiful jazz performance by Ken Avis and Lynn Veronneau, an insightful panel discussion, delicious catering (thank you, Windows Catering!), and much more. Many thanks to the Events & Arts Education committees for orchestrating such an incredible event, with a BIG shoutout to our amazing event co-chairs and the host committees. Your leadership and passion were the driving force behind the success of this extraordinary weekend. To everyone who attended, contributed, and supported MPA Inspires--THANK YOU!

#GlvingTuesday Thanks!

We did it---TOGETHER! Thanks to all of our donors for your support last week on Giving Tuesday. And with the generous support of Jill, Paul, and JP Young, we were able to match donations--meaning your gift went twice as far! Again, thank you for your contributions. If you didn't have a chance to participate in Giving Tuesday, please consider supporting us through our Annual Giving campaign: https://mpaart.org/annual-giving-2023/
