McLean Project for the Arts Elects New Board Members Five new individuals bring their expertise, enthusiasm to the MPFA Board of Directors

McLean, VA: McLean Project for the Arts (MPFA) announced the appointment of five new members, and a new board chair, to the MPFA Board of Directors.

The new members are:

- Kim Keating (Fairfax, VA): Consultant and executive coach
- Trevell Lange (Fryman, MD): Real estate agent and community leader
- Debra Dinsbury (Arlington, VA): Art enthusiast, special needs advocate, and community leader
- Virginia Milton (McLean, VA): Director, Associate General Counsel, Rose Allen Hamilton
- John Simms (McLean, VA): Entrepreneur and long-time civic engagement, management, and fundraising professional

The MPFA Board of Directors also elected Paul Young to serve as chair of the 44-person board. Young succeeds Pamela Gannon, who will continue to serve as a member of the board. Jane Imperatore, Helen Friedelick, and Alicia Sand will continue in their executive leadership positions as vice-chair, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

New board members were formally installed at the December 2025 McLean Project for the Arts Board of Directors meeting.
